PRICE THREE CENTS

MUST PROTECT AMERICANS

TURKISH OFFICIALS ARE SO NOTIFIED.

Situation at Beirut Not as Bad as When First Reports were First Sent—Admiral Cotton's Fleet Now at Genoa.

MUST BE PROTECTED.
Washington, Aug. 29.—The state department today received a cablegram from Minister Leshman in which he stated that the situation at Beirut was not as bad as when first reports were first sent. The cablegram stated that the situation at Beirut was not as bad as when first reports were first sent. The cablegram stated that the situation at Beirut was not as bad as when first reports were first sent.

WORLD FROM ADMIRAL COTTON.
Washington, Aug. 29.—A message was received today from Admiral Cotton announcing the arrival of the Brooklyn and San Francisco at Genoa, saying they had begun coal. Acting Secretary Darling advised Secretary Hay as soon as the Brooklyn and San Francisco finish coaling they will sail for Beirut under present orders.

HAY IN WASHINGTON.
Washington, Aug. 29.—Secretary Hay returned to his desk in the department this morning. Hay's arrival at Washington at this time was not due to occurrences in Turkey, but in accordance with arrangements made at the time of departure for Oyster Bay.

MINISTER ALARMED.
Saville, L. L., Aug. 29.—Alarmed at the critical condition of American-Turkish relations, Checkley Bey, the port's envoy to the United States, is to night hastening to Washington for a conference with Secretary Hay. The conference probably will occur at Hay's house tomorrow afternoon. The dispatch of American warships to Turkish waters is a source of greatest anxiety to the minister. Although confident himself the Washington government's only motive in taking this action was to protect Americans, he fears it will have an opposite effect and render more difficult efforts of the port to protect foreigners. Until he receives instruction from Constantinople Checkley Bey will not request the Washington government to withdraw the squadron, but will call Hay's attention to the delicate situation in Turkey, hoping that the state department may do something to relieve the embarrassment of the port.

No word has reached the minister of the attack on the American vice consul at Beirut and he has been without official advice concerning events in Turkey for more than a week. There is a possibility the Washington government may be of service in solving the sultan's international difficulties and as such as well as local troubles at Beirut is calling Checkley Bey to Washington.

Checkley Bey has slept little since hearing the report of the Magellens assassination. The night following he walked the floor until six the next morning. He was very much relieved on learning to day that Magellens was not dead. In an interview he admitted that the outlook in Turkey was bad. He insists Turkish authorities of Beirut would protect Americans. He expressed regret and promised to do all possible to apprehend the guilty person. Beside the foreign office had offered the strongest official assurances to the same effect. He thought the Magellens affair without political significance and expressed the opinion the attack was made by a personal enemy of the vice consul.

Checkley Bey hoped diplomatic relations would not be severed and could think of nothing more disastrous. He had not heard the rumor the American program called for seizure of ports in event that the sultan refused the demand and that this would be followed by the recall of Leshman and possibly his own departure. He expressed hope the situation was not that bad, but would of course go if the United States government decided on his departure. He also hoped the Washington government would appreciate the present situation in Turkey and not insist on a final adjustment of all pending controversies until interior troubles have quieted.

Discussing trouble with missionaries he said: "I am advised certain missionaries when they go to Turkey or Constantinople arouse feeling against Moslems. They even talk to Armenians, inciting them to rebellion. Suppose I should establish in Washington a school for negroes and my teachers should tell the negroes attending that school that they ought not to submit to lynching and should rebel. Do you think I would remain in this country long or that my school would flourish? This is a side of the question that is not often heard."

Continuing he said: "The missionary should confine himself to the religious and intellectual training of his pupils and not endeavor to make them dissatisfied with their present form of government." He was sure the Turks could not be expected to encourage the undermining of their government. Missionaries are urged to be careful.

REIGN OF TERROR EXISTS

TOWNS BURNING AND PEOPLE PANIC STRICKEN.

Bulgarian Paper Publishes Report of Condition of Affairs—Turks are Committing Wholesale Massacres.

VESSELS DELAYED.
Washington, Aug. 29.—The navy department has a cablegram from Rear Admiral Cotton saying the Brooklyn and San Francisco will sail from Genoa for Beirut Sunday. They were delayed by coaling. The order for them to proceed to Beirut has not been changed. Acting Secretary Darling to day sent a cablegram to Cotton informing him that Magellens had not been killed, but had been fired upon. This was done to apprise Cotton of the situation at Beirut.

The collector Alexander was reported at Malta on her way to Manila to deal with coal for the Asiatic squadron. She will next report at Port Said and if exigency is then necessary she will be held to supply coalers of the European squadron with coal.

GIVE POWERS A LESSON.
Paris, Aug. 29.—Government officials here take great interest in the movements and the intentions of American warships in the Mediterranean. The Temps says the United States, noting the apathy of Europe to the present condition of anarchy in Turkey, is likely to give the powers a lesson in energy and firmness. French newspapers give greatest prominence to dispatches referring to the movements of the American squadron.

POWERS FOUND GUILTY

And Sentenced to be Hanged for Complicity in Murder of Gov. Coebel.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 29.—The jury in the case of Caleb Powers, on trial for complicity in the murder of Governor Coebel, this morning returned a verdict of guilty. Sentence was placed at death. This afternoon a motion for a new trial was overruled and Powers was sentenced to be hanged Nov. 25 next. An appeal was granted to the Kentucky court of appeals and the defense proposes if unsuccessful there to try to get the United States supreme court to take it under advisement. Powers refused to say anything about the sentence passed.

A telegram from Indianapolis states that ex-Gov. W. S. Taylor said: "This verdict affects me very much. I cannot say a word."

TAYLOR CALLS IT A CRIME.

Indianapolis, Aug. 29.—W. S. Taylor, former governor of Kentucky, to night declared the conviction of Caleb Powers "a monstrous crime," adding: "When it is remembered Caleb Powers has been convicted for political purposes and to cover and excuse the monstrous crime of robbing him of his office by use of a $100,000 perjury fund and by indelting and then bribing with immunity and money cringing creatures to swear his life away in three bitter partisan courts before packed partisan juries deliberately selected to convict no one is surprised. It is a monstrous crime. The verdict does not in fact nor in the minds of just men anywhere make him any more guilty than did the conviction and execution of Robert Emmet make him guilty. Caleb Powers is an innocent man."

MADE GENERAL ASSIGNMENT.

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 29.—Reed Oliver, president of the recently suspended Citizens' National bank, made to day a general assignment. No statement was filed. Oliver is president of four other banks, all of which have closed since the failure here.

WILL VISIT DAUGHTER

Belleville Woman to Welcome Father, of Whose Existence She has Been Ignorant.

St. Paul, Aug. 29.—Myron Fuller waited restlessly in the union station in this city to day for an early train to Chicago. When he reaches Belleville, Ill., he will see his daughter, whom he thought long dead, and his two grandchildren, of whose existence he never knew. Until two weeks ago, in his present home at Seattle, he thought himself a childless widower. For twenty-two years he has lived alone. When he discovered that he not only was not childless, but that he was the grandfather of two bouncing children, his surprise and anxiety to see them were boundless.

When a young man Mr. Fuller lived in St. Paul. He married a St. Paul girl, but their matrimonial experiences were unpleasing. While he was away from home a daughter was born. He returned home two weeks after the event and was told by relatives of his wife that the child had died. In fact, the child had been spirited away and the mother shortly went to join it. A year after the mother died and Mr. Fuller was not told that the child was still alive. He went into business in a western town and was successful. He led a bachelor's life. Two weeks ago he was informed by a friend that his daughter was alive in the Illinois town. Fuller would not believe it until he was shown indisputable evidence.

He forgave the ruse of which he had been the victim and started for his daughter's home. His friends say he has made a fortune and is delighted with the prospect of having some one to whom to leave it.

NOT ENTITLED TO PAY
A decision in Miller's case regarding wages during absence from work.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Comptroller Tracwell, in a decision to Public Printer Palmer, has ruled that W. A. Miller, assistant foreman of the bookbinding department of the government printing office, whose case has attracted so much attention, is not entitled to pay during the time of his absence from the printing office. Miller was absent sixty-three days and if his claim had been valid there would be due him $52. The comptroller holds that Miller is not an official of the government, but an employee, and rules that a prerequisite of his pay is that he should be present and actually perform the labor required of him.

Salt Lake, Utah, Aug. 29.—Brig. Gen. William H. Penrose, U. S. A., retired, died of typhoid fever at his home in this city to night. General Penrose was commissioned from Michigan as second lieutenant in the regular army in 1861 and at the close of the war had been promoted to brigadier general of volunteers. He retired the regular service in 1886 and retired as colonel of the Sixteenth regiment in 1888. Capt. Charles W. Penrose, of Michigan, is his son.

CHICAGO WAITERS WON'T STRIKE.

It is believed a great majority of waiters will not obey the order. FILLY CAPTURES GREAT RACE

HAMBURG BELLE WINS FUTURITY STAKE.

New York, Aug. 29.—Hamburg Belle won the Futurity, six furlongs, at Sheepshead bay to day by a length. Leonidas, second; The Minute Man, third, five lengths behind Leonidas. Time, 1:13.

Hamburg Belle's performance, full six furlongs in 1:13, is the record for a race at that distance. From 1892 to 1901 inclusive the Futurity course was seventeen feet short of six furlongs. Savable made a record of 1:14 last year. Throughout she was the speediest and at the end the gamster, coming on in the heaviest part of the track near the rail with the courage of an amazon and swiftness of the wind. Fuller rode with perfect judgment. When Leonidas challenged, a sixteenth from the finish, he struck Hamburg Belle with his whip and her spirit rebelled and she leaped sideways six feet, reducing her length's lead to nothing. With lightning intuition the boy dropped his whip and sitting to ride called on the beautiful filly to do her best. Nobly she responded and spurring away shook off her sturdy half brother, winning the greatest 2-year-old prize of the world, $50,000, by a head.

The track was very heavy most of the distance because of rain of the past two days and it was drizzling so hard when the horses reached the Futurity chute that they were almost invisible from the grand stand. After five minutes delay the big field got away in excellent alignment. Fuller held Hamburg Belle in restraint through the dip where the going was softer, but when he reached hard ground just before the elbow he let her down a bit and her head showed in front as the leaders swept into the stretch. Delhi went back quickly, but the despised Lady Amelia had joined the front ranks. Hamburg Belle and Leonidas alone were prominent when the stretch was reached. Little Em hung on well, but Broomstick was out of it, his stable mate, Audencia, running far better. Passing the last eighth pole it was Hamburg Belle by a length, Leonidas half a length and Little Em third. But Hamburg Belle was tipping along easily and Leonidas responding to Redfern's desperate riding forced her faster and faster and the two sped away from the others. Leonidas drew up on the filly. Both were in the center of the track and the best going. A sixteenth from home Hamburg Belle on the inside and still a length in the lead, Fuller saw the little fellow's head bobbing closer and closer and drawing his whip cut the filly on the flank. She shrank away from the blow, evidently disconcerted, but not in cowardice. Her spring carried her into the deep mud near the rail and when Fuller saw his error and set to work in a flash with hands and heels to mend it the response was magnificent. Hamburg Belle straightened out like a greyhound and shot through the mud toward the near goal. In a second she was going faster than Leonidas and in a moment more was home first, winner and the greatest turf heroine of 1903.

Hamburg Belle is the third filly to win the Futurity. The others were The Buttery and L'Alouette. Her owner, Paget, is credited with winning $30,000 by her victory and winnings of John J. Ryan, a western turf owner, are placed at $50,000. Sidney Paget, who is registered as lessee of Hamburg Belle's running qualities from the estate of Marcus Daly, received $35,399 as the winner's share.

Proceedings Brought by Attorney General of Missouri in the Supreme Court—Organization Represents $300,000,000.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 29.—Attorney General Crow to day struck his first blow at the so-called terminal monopoly by instituting before the Missouri supreme court quo warranto proceedings to annul the charters of the St. Louis Merchants Bridge and Terminal Railway company, Wiggins Ferry company and St. Louis Terminal Railway association. THE DEATH ECORD.

DAVIS.

Miss Lillian Davis passed from earth Saturday afternoon at 12:10 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Davis, 724 South West street. She had been a sufferer from chronic intestinal trouble for a number of years and the coming of the silent messenger brought a long sought relief. Throughout her extended illness she has exhibited a beautiful spirit and has borne her affliction with a patience and fortitude seldom seen.

Two years ago she went to Colorado in the hope of regaining her health and returned only three weeks ago, when it became evident that her case was a hopeless one.

The deceased was born near Exeter, Scott county, but removed with her parents to this city when quite young, and this place has since been her residence. In 1892 she entered the Woman's college and graduated in the class of 1897, being forced to take a year's absence on account of her health. After graduation she taught school for two years, but found the strain too great for her and with great reluctance laid aside a work her heart was in. She united with the Congregational church of this city at an early age and has ever since been actively identified with that organization.

She had kind and winning ways and her friends were legion. She faced death with that confidence born only of a Christian character and her going hence will be the source of sadness to many hearts. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Davis, two sisters, Mrs. Charles Rogers and Mrs. Dorothy Myers, and two brothers, Walter L. and George W., all of this city.

The funeral services will be held Monday at 2 o'clock and will be of a private character. They will be in charge of Dr. F. S. Hayden and Dr. J. R. Harker. Interment will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

MISS ROTTGER'S ENGAGEMENT.

A short time since Miss Ulla Rottger went to New York to take a position with the "Crystal Slipper" Opera company, but arriving there she found an opportunity affording better salary and more desirable employment to enter the cast of Schubert's, Nixon & Zimmerman's Opera company, presenting the "Chinese Honey Moon." Miss Rottger has had the satisfaction of being appointed understudy for the prima donna, Miss Nelson, which is a great compliment to one who has not been on the regular stage. The company is a fine one and is expected to begin the season at Cumberland, Md., Monday night, Aug. 31. Milwaukee, St. Paul and the Pacific coast were the objective points in the mind of Mr. Lavine, the manager, and, as a rule, there would be few if any one night stands, the company appearing in cities large enough to justify engagement of several days.

THE BUSINESS COLLEGE

Extensive Improvements Have Been Made—Changes in Teachers.

The thirty-seventh year of the Brown's Business college will open Tuesday, Sept. 1. The substantial structure on the corner of Kosciusko and Morgan streets has been refurnished, redecorated and repainted throughout and changes and improvements in the equipment have been made in keeping with the thorough and progressive manner in which the Brown schools are conducted.

There will be two changes in the faculty of the institution this year. Miss Lucile Elliott will be at the head of the typewriting department and Mr. J. Fred Williams, of Bluff Springs, will be in charge of the book-keeping department. Both are graduates of the local school and have supplemented their training with a course at the instructors' summer school, conducted each year at the Peoria institution. They are therefore fully equipped for their work and will no doubt prove competent instructors.

It is planned this year to conduct a night school beginning Oct. 1. The course will be offered three evenings a week from 7 to 9 o'clock with a special instructor in charge. It has been several years since the college has conducted a night school, but the applications have been so numerous that it was deemed advisable to meet this demand.

The prospect for attendance is most gratifying and up to the present time the application list has been the largest in the history of the institution. Tuesday is registration day and the enrollment will not be known until that time. The school generally has its largest attendance during the months of November, December and January, when the pupils number as high as 160.

Two courses are open to the students, the business course and the stenographer's course and if preferred these course can be combined, which is frequently done. No student is asked to enroll for a longer period than ten weeks at a time, although this by no means completes the course, but this plan is deemed preferable to the long contract method and gives the student a freedom seldom offered in schools of similar character.

There are fifteen schools being operated under the Brown system and in addition to commanding positions in each of these cities the company has connections in St. Louis and Chicago that absorb all the high grade office help they can furnish. The schools are situated at the following places: Peoria, Decatur, Galesburg, Bloomington, Ottawa, Centralia, Champaign, Terre Haute, Ind., Rockford, Davenport, Iowa, Moline, Rock Island, Streator and Danville. The total enrollment numbers between 3,000 and 4,000.

It is certainly gratifying to know that the prospects of the local school for the present year are so bright and under the efficient management of Principal T. R. Hopkins, whose untiring effort is devoted to the work of the institution and its students, the anticipations for the present year will no doubt be fully realized.

GAVE A SEWING.

Mrs. S. T. Anderson very pleasantly entertained the members of the Bachelor Girls' club, together with a few of their most intimate friends at a sewing Saturday afternoon in honor of her niece, Miss Jessie Goltra, whose marriage to Percy Stone is to occur next Wednesday.

The house decorations, which were pink and white in the dining room and in the parlor lavender and white were very beautiful. In each room were bouquets of pink and white china asters. The function was made all the more delightful by the sewing of dainty refreshments, appropriately designed for the occasion. Those present from out of the city were Miss Ruth Gardner, of Bloomington, Miss Fay Brown, of Lincoln and Miss Maude Cooper, of Springfield.

The largest and most stylish assortment of street hats ever shown in Jacksonville can be seen now at Herman's at popular low prices.

A PLEASANT REUNION

When the veterans were leaving for the west J. N. Boyer, of Flagah precinct, decided to go along and see something of the far west, so he took in Kansas City, Denver, Utah, Sacramento, Portland, Baker City and other places toward the setting sun. While out there he decided to visit his brother Thomas, who lives in one of the states north of California, and whom he had not seen for 30 years. The gentleman lives on a good farm in the country and Mr. Boyer employed a boy to drive him out and he arrived at the place about 2 p. m. and asked if a man named Boyer lived there and receiving an affirmative reply accepted an invitation to stop in. He saw at once he was not recognized, so he asked for dinner and though it was two and the table had been cleared away he was accommodated in good shape.

"Pretty good place you have here," said the guest.

"Yes; rather fair on the whole."

"Been here a good while?"

"Yes; a good many years."

"I see you have to irrigate; plenty of water for the purpose?"

"We are quite well fixed in that line."

"I am rather pleased with the country about here and think I'd like to stay three or four days; can you accommodate me?"

"Well; I hardly know; we don't exactly make a business of such things."

"I will be very little trouble and wish you could keep me."

"We will talk it over and see about it."

"I hope you will find it convenient."

HER FATHER STUDENT HERE

The following article appeared in a recent issue of the Journal of Anderson, Ind., and the young lady referred to is the daughter of a former student of Whipple academy:

"Miss Grace Fernandez, daughter of D. H. Fernandez, a prominent attorney at the local bar, has achieved a distinction which few graduates even of normal schools have been able to do. At a recent examination for teachers, Miss Fernandez came within a fraction of one per cent of an average sufficient to give her a three years' teachers' license. It was her first attempt. The remarkable average secured is apparent when it is known that the young woman is but 17 years of age and had but little training in pedagogics. Miss Fernandez is a graduate of the city high school and tied for honors of her class. She is one of the brightest products of the city schools and the careful training and efficiency of the work done is strikingly illustrated in Miss Fernandez."

"That is John Boyer's voice, but the man doesn't look like him at all," and then Mr. Boyer began to laugh and the game was up and a happy recognition followed. Of course all sorts of questions were asked about friends back home and a visit of several days was enjoyed. Mr. Boyer found his brother well fixed on a good farm with a fine family and after a few days prevailed on him to return with him to Illinois and he was seen by the writer Saturday afternoon. He had not been in Morgan county for forty-two years and of course finds little that is natural. James Wood, he says, looks somewhat familiar, but most of the boys he knew are grey haired men now and grown out of his recollection. He is a fine looking man and a good recommendation for the Pacific coast. He will remain perhaps three or four weeks with his brother, whom he is glad to find so well fixed and so highly regarded in the community.

"I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee, of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." For sale by J. A. Obermeyer.

EXTENDS TIME.

The adjutant general Saturday morning issued an order extending the time of the rifle competition for position on the state team so that it includes Aug. 30. There was one rainy day in the time allotted originally and to give the militiamen the time necessary the limit was extended to take in one additional day.

ISSUES REQUISITION.

Governor Yates Saturday morning issued a requisition on the governor of Ohio for Gilbert Briggs, who is wanted in Chicago for larceny. He is under arrest in Cleveland. Briggs borrowed a watch and chain from his landlady on the plea he had secured a railroad job and could not hold it unless he had a watch.

NOT OVER-WISE.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all druggists.

SO SOOTHING

Its Influence Has Been Felt by so Many Jacksonville Readers.

The soothing influence of relief. After suffering from itching piles, from eczema or any itchiness of the skin.

Makes one feel grateful to the remedy. Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds. Here's what one Jacksonville citizen says:

"Anthony Ward, of 104 North Main street, says: 'For fifteen years I was troubled with a severe irritation on my body and nothing I employed brought good results until I procured Doan's Ointment at J. A. Obermeyer's drug store and used it. The ointment was prompt and in a short time the trouble was removed. I had also suffered from eczema on my chest and although I treated it for it with physicians they could do it no good. A few applications of Doan's Ointment entirely removed it. This reliable preparation is a true specific for skin diseases.'"

PONDEROUS MARVELS

Elephants who Dance and Drill Perfectly.

Elephants are so strong and so sagacious that it seems as if nothing were impossible to them. The wonderful performances by the four herds of elephants of the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows Up'ed calls this fact to mind. They dance, form pyramids of all sorts, walk on rolling barrels, walk a tight rope, stand on their head and do all sorts of things. Among the easiest tricks to teach them is to stand upright on their "hind legs." Every performing elephant does it and it makes it seem almost incredible that there is only one elephant among all the trained animals in the world who can take a step on his two rear legs. And yet it is a fact. Their weight is so enormous and the strain of standing in that position is so great that the vast creatures seem afraid to trust themselves to stand on one leg long enough to extend the other one and thus make the step. With the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Shows is the one exception. He not only can take one step, but he can take one hundred steps if he is asked to. He is about three-quarters grown and is called Mitey. His walk upon two legs is one of the features of the marvelous exhibition of pachydermic training to be seen with these great consolidated shows.

"DARKNESS AND DAYLIGHT."

The first and only dramatization ever made of Mary J. Holmes' well known and much read, domestic story of southern life and characters will be seen at the opening attraction at the Grand next Wednesday, Sept. 2. In exploiting this play the effort has been made to select something that would appeal directly to the ladies, and no better source could have been found by the dramatist than one of Mrs. Holmes' books, and in this case the most popular of her many works has been chosen. It will be offered with a cast of excellent players in its several characters and should be the source of much enjoyment to those who delight in that order of plays of the clean, pure heart class.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

The venerable "Peachy" Black was in the city Saturday, and though about 90 years of age is able yet to get around to a considerable degree. He has been a well known figure for a long time and though age and infirmities prevent him from visiting the city frequently he likes to come when he is able to do so.

Books in abundance at Ledford's Book Store.

CORN EXHIBIT.

Before the carnival Garland & Co. offered a prize of a good Stetson hat for the twelve ears of corn which would score the greatest number of points and there were thirteen entries and all showed that Morgan county farmers well know how to raise corn and exhibit it also. A competent set of judges was secured and after much meditation and counseling with each other they decided that John Carwell had the best sample of grain and awarded him the blue ribbon. It was the "Red Yellow Dent" and an excellent exhibit, while there were other lots which were very good.

L. C. & R. E. Henry have a fine lot of Fall goods, very cheap.

A THING OF THE PAST

Saturday was Last Day of Corn Carnival—Cleaning the Park.

The street fair and corn carnival is no more. The park has been cleared, many of the decorations have been removed from the store fronts and only a memory remains. The week has been free from serious disturbances and few disorderly or drunken characters have been seen upon the streets. While the crowd has been a noisy one and confetti has been scattered broadcast with a lavish hand a certain amount of fun and hilarity is always allowable on such occasions, which indeed would be tame affairs were such not the case.

The shows did not report a large business except in one or two cases, but the merry-go-rounds and the miniature railroad, have been the money makers throughout the carnival. The Ferris wheel seemed to be a dead one, while last year people fairly stood in line awaiting their turn. The free attractions were all of a high class and their performances were without exception well worth witnessing.

The horse show proved an attractive feature of the week's program and the manner in which J. W. Woods conducted it was satisfactory to all concerned.

From now on entertainments of a public character will be quite numerous and the Forepaugh-Sells Bros. shows, the opening of the opera house and the Driving club matinee are among the number that will take place the first part of September.

The work of removing tents commenced about 11 o'clock and a large force of men was in readiness to clear up the park and the pavement adjoining.

PART COMPANY.

Markee Band no Longer Part of Carnival Aggregation.

The Markee band that has been furnishing the music for the Bucklin-Darnaby Carnival company, left the company here and will return to their home in Quincy this morning. They have been with the company fifteen weeks and according to the statements of F. B. and R. C. Markee, members of the band, their departure is due to a failure on the part of the carnival company to comply with their contracts.

A difficulty arose Wednesday over the question of salary for the week and the band refused to play and as they are members of the Musicians' union notified the Jeffries' Concert band that they were on a strike, etc. The matter was finally adjusted by the local committee, who guaranteed the band their salary for the balance of the week and the music went merrily on. The Markee people feel that they have been unfairly dealt with by the Bucklin-Darnaby people and left the company here.
